ENA KAMILA GUERRERO, Masters in Sociology
Central European University, Budapest, Hungary

Studying at CEU had been an eye opening experience for me on how societies can really be so complex... The training sharpened my mind to be critical and to construct my opinions on rigorous and well-balanced analysis based on evidence. My education also motivated me to work towards consolidating democracy not only in my country but also in the all parts of the world.

I cannot express how thankful I am to the FLC. Thank you for believing that a woman, especially coming from the margins, too, can excel academically, pursue higher studies, and contribute in meaningful ways to better the world...I am a living testimony that ICFLC is a powerful instrument in making the lives of each person more purposeful.

"THINKING CAN NEVER QUITE CATCH UP WITH REALITY;
REALITY IS ALWAYS RICHER THAN OUR COMPREHENSION.
REALITY HAS THE POWER TO SURPRISE THINKING, AND THINKING HAS THE POWER TO CREATE REALITY. BUT WE MUST REMEMBER THE UNINTENDED CONSEQUENCES –
THE OUTCOME ALWAYS DIFFERS FROM EXPECTATIONS."
